

Pannal and Burn Bridge Parish Council

Local Government Association Model Councillor Code of Conduct 2020

Adopted at the Parish Council Meeting 8th April 2021

Addendum

Restrictions on councillor activities

11. The only persons allowed to communicate with third parties on any subject relating to the Parish Council without having any prior authorisation are the clerk and the chairman. The vice chairman may act in the chairman's absence for expedience.
12. Where matters of planning are concerned, only the clerk, the chairman of the planning committee or the chairman of the Parish Council may communicate with third parties unless special dispensation has been resolved at a council meeting and minuted as such.
13. If there are questions which affect P&BBPC, they MUST be posed to the clerk and RFO and not direct to any third party without authorisation and in fulfilment of the Parish Council's Standing Orders.
